ABA File No. 1991D166

Before: Rabinowitz, Chief Justice, Burke,
Matthews, Compton and Moore, Justices.

The Supreme Court of the State of Oregon issued Per Curiam Opinion No. OSB 86-25, 87-34/SC S37007, and Appellate Judgment effective October 16, 1991, suspending CRAIG D. WHITE from the practice of law for a period of three years. The Alaska Bar Association submitted notice of this action to the Alaska Supreme Court on December 26, 1991. This court issued an order on December 26, 1991, directing respondent to show cause why the imposition by the Alaska Supreme Court of discipline identical to the discipline imposed by the State of Oregon would be unwarranted. A second notice to the respondent was sent by certified mail on February 14, 1992. A return receipt shows that the notice was delivered on February 18, 1992. However, Craig White has failed to respond to this court's order.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That for the reasons set out in the Appellate Judgment effective October 16, 1991, and Per Curiam Opinion of the Oregon Supreme Court, respondent CRAIG D. WHITE is suspended from the practice of law in the State of Alaska for three years effective nunc pro tunc to October 16, 1991.

2. CRAIG D. WHITE shall comply with the requirements of Alaska Bar Rule 28.

3. Any application for reinstatement shall comply with the requirements of Alaska Bar Rule 29.

Entered by direction of the court at Anchorage, Alaska on April 13, 1992.
