ABA File No. 85.090

Before: Matthews, Chief Justice, Rabinowitz,
Burke, Compton and Moore, Justices.

This matter having come before the court on a referral of the decision and recommendation of the Disciplinary Board of the Alaska Bar Association, and the court being advised in the premises,

IT IS ORDERED:

On a full review of the record in this case, we AFFIRM and ADOPT the decision of the Disciplinary Board of the Alaska Bar Association, recommending that respondent Robert J. Buckalew be disbarred from the practice of law in the State of Alaska, effective July 18, 1985. The respondent shall comply with the requirements of Alaska Bar Rule 28. Any application for reinstatement shall comply with the requirements of Alaska Bar Rule 29.

Entered by direction of the court at Anchorage, Alaska on November 12, 1987.

CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT

DAVID A. LAMPEN

[Rabinowitz and Moore, Justices, dissent. They would reject the recommendation for the reasons expressed in their dissent in In the Disciplinary Matter Involving Robert J. Buckalew, 731 P.2d 48, 56 (Alaska 1987).]
